10. You must notify the court of any material change in your economic circumstances that might affect your ability to pay restitution, fines, or special assessments.

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with the following special conditions:

- 1) The defendant shall pay restitution in minimum monthly installments of $310.00 per month to begin 30 days from entry of judgment.
- 2) The defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The U.S. Probation Office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.
- 3) The defendant must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the U.S. Probation Office.

DEFENDANT: NICOLE HALLIETT HOLLAND

CASE NUMBER: 3:18-863

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. NICOLE HALLIETT HOLLAND)

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE AS TO NICOLE HALLIETT HOLLAND

This matter is before the court on the motion of the United States for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Defendant Nicole Halliett Holland (“Holland”, “Defendant”), based upon the following:

1. On September 18, 2018, a multi-count Indictment was filed charging Holland with:

Counts 8 and 11: Wire fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1343;

Counts 19 and 22: Mail fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1341; and

Count 25: Conspiracy to commit mail fraud and wire fraud, in Violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1341, 1343 and 1349; and Count 26: Theft of federal funds, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 666.

2. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(a), the Indictment contained a forfeiture allegation providing that upon Holland’s conviction, certain properties enumerated therein, or equivalent substitute assets, would be subject to forfeiture to the United States.

3. On November 1, 2018, Holland pled guilty to one count of wire fraud and count of mail fraud and pursuant to a written plea agreement, agreed to the entry of a forfeiture judgment.

4. Based upon Defendant's conviction, the court has determined that $11,164.60 is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).

5. Based upon Defendant's conviction, the court has determined that the government has established the requisite nexus between this amount and the offense for which Holland has been convicted; therefore, the United States is entitled to a preliminary order of forfeiture, subject to the provisions of 21 U.S.C. § 853 governing third party rights. The court has determined that the property described above is subject to forfeiture, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c).

Therefore, it is ORDERED that $11,164.60 is subject to forfeiture.

6. The Court further finds that one or more of the conditions set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), exists.

7. It is, therefore, ORDERED that the United States is entitled to forfeit substitute assets equal to the value of the proceeds obtained by Defendant Holland as a result of her violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 1343 and that such substitute assets shall not exceed the value of the proceeds Defendant Holland obtained.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED,

1. The above-described property, and all right, title, and interest of the Defendant, Nicole Halliett Holland, in and to such property, is hereby forfeited to the United States of America, for disposition in accordance with law, subject to the rights of third parties in such property under 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

2. FORFEITURE IS ORDERED against Holland and in favor of the United States for $11,164.60, along with appropriate costs and interest thereon at the rate provided for in 28 U.S.C. § 1961. The United States may at any time move pursuant to Rule 32.2(e) to amend this Order to substitute property to satisfy the forfeiture judgment.

3. The United States may sell or otherwise dispose of any substitute assets in accordance with law as required to satisfy the above imposed forfeiture judgment.

4. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney is authorized to conduct proper discovery in identifying, locating, or disposing of the described property, or other substitute assets, in accordance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(b)(3); and to commence proceedings that comply with statutes governing third party rights, if applicable.

5. The government is not required to publish notice regarding the personal forfeiture judgment against Defendant; however, the Order shall be recorded in the records of the County Clerk's Office in the County of the debtor's residence, place of business, and any and all other counties in which the debtor has either real or personal property, as a lien thereon.

6. Upon entry of the criminal judgment, this Order becomes final as to Defendant, and shall be made a part of the sentence and included in the criminal judgment.

7. The court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

8. The Clerk, United States District Court, shall provide one (1) certified copy of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
